dramatic. Students who wish to audition with a song should be prepared to do so on the first day and bring piano music for that proposed solo.
Additional information will be provided in the welcome letter.

About EdCamp

Five full days of workshops and clinics in all aspects of theatre arts led by professional performers and teachers for students entering 6th grade to recent high school graduates. Students receive instruction on acting, dance, voice and improvisation techniques. The weeklong camp culminates with a student showcase performance on Friday evening.

Who was Ed Lonzinski?

Ed attended Blue Ridge High School and Mansfield University. He was involved with several community theatre companies and was to be a member of the EMTC Board of Directors. Ed believed in making theatre more accessible to our rural community. Through the generosity of his parents, Dolly & Mike, a fund was established to create a living memorial to this committed and talented man.
